The ancient provinces of France are named on the map. The figures in the above table indicate the departments and correspond with the figures on the map. The ancient provinces and modern provinces of Spain are shown on the map. The names of the latter are the same as their respective capitals, except the three Basque provinces. Alava, Biscaya and Guipuzcoa the capitals of which are respectively Vittoria, Bilbao and Tolosa.

The capitals of the departments of France and the provinces of Spain and Portugal are represented thus: a

This is a detailed historical map of Eastern Europe and the Balkans. The map shows the following countries and regions:

- Central Europe: Austria, Hungary, and Transylvania.
- Balkan Peninsula: Bulgaria, Serbia, Montenegro, Albania, Greece, and Turkey (European part).
- Black Sea: The Black Sea is shown in the center, with the Crimean Peninsula to its north and the Caucasus to its south.
- Other Regions: Romania, Macedonia, and parts of the Ottoman Empire.

The map includes a scale of miles (0 to 200) and a compass rose. It also features a small inset map in the bottom left corner showing the location of the main map area within the context of the surrounding world.
